

JANUARY 22 PLAYLIST

OVERVIEW

LGK will be leaning into the God-saturated life and discovering how we can be more like Jesus. We will be focusing on Jesus' personal encounters with ordinary people and how their lives (and ours) are changed by meeting him.

We will follow his ministry from getting lost in the temple as a young boy all the way to the cross through nine stories. Our hope is that we all discover that the same Jesus who healed and helped, laughed and loved 2000 years ago is present in the same way in our lives in 2022.

PRAYER FOCUS

Praying out loud can be challenging to both young and old alike and often one becomes immediately tongue tied when asked to do so. In January, we will be sharing prayer requests with each other and practicing how to incorporate those requests in out loud, conversational prayers to God.

LGK REACHES OUT

For the month of January, LGK will be partnering with Family Promise in Tualatin and collecting hygiene items. Family Promise of Tualatin Valley was formed as a grass roots effort in October, 2016 and opened its doors to serving families experiencing homelessness in March, 2019. They accomplish this by providing emergency shelter and wraparound services that include extensive case management, family mentoring, and life skills training such as budgeting. LITURGICAL SEASON

As we step out of Advent and into the Christmas season, we move from a time of waiting to a time of celebration. Jesus is born!

Christmas season ends with Epiphany on January 6 when we remember the Wise Men's visit to Jesus. Epiphany celebrates the appearance of the Lord in the midst of humanity. It calls the us to be witnesses of the light of Christ to our neighbors and the world.
